Peaceful Classrooms Workshop

The California Association for the Education of Young Children (CAAIEYC) and Educators for Peaceful Classrooms and Communities (EPCC) are collaborating on a pre-conference workshop.

Hand in Hand: Adults and Children Working Together to Create a Culture of Peace

Peace education is both a philosophy and a process. The process involves empowering families, educators and children with the skills, attitudes and knowledge to cooperatively create a safe world and build a sustainable environment. The philosophy teaches peace building, love, compassion and reverence for all life.

Presenters: Wilma Gold and Ana Page

This is a standalone workshop – you do not need to be registered for Conference. Registrants will be provided with a resource binder as part of the registration fee.

When: Friday, June 26, 2020

Time: 10:00am-4:00pm*

Where: Pasadena Convention Center, Conference Building

*There will be a break from 12:00pm-1:00pm (lunch is on your own)
