Introduction
We recognize that the following procedures are lengthy; however, we want you to have as much information as possible prior to completing the online submission form.

You must complete the form all at once. Be sure to allow sufficient time to complete your submission. You will not have the option to complete a portion and come back to it.

Procedures for Submitting a Workshop Proposal

- Workshop proposals accepted online only.
- All information must be completed on the Call for Presentations form or the proposal will not be considered.
- Workshop titles must clearly communicate the content of the program. If your proposal is accepted, brief workshop descriptions will be listed in the Final Program distributed onsite and on CAEYC's Conference mobile app.
- Primary presenters may submit up to two proposals. If more than two proposals are submitted, the first two proposals submitted based upon the automated date stamp from the system will be accepted; all additional proposals after the second proposal will be subsequently deleted.
- Primary presenters are limited to presenting in two workshops, including participation as a co-presenter.
- Sessions are 90 minutes in length.
- Spell out abbreviations or acronyms for institutions, school names, job titles or cities.
- Do not type in all caps; also be sure to proof your own typing for spelling and grammar accuracy.
- Proposal must be submitted by Friday, August 19, 2016. Proposals submitted after that date may not be considered.

Content of Workshops
The purpose of CAEYC is to serve and act on behalf of the needs and rights of young children by providing educational services and resources to adults who work with children from birth through 8 years of age including child care center staff, family child care providers, elementary school teachers, administrators and staff and many others. CAEYC's Annual Conference attracts more than 2,500 participants. As a service to its approximately 5,000 members, CAEYC is looking for topics on practical experience and applied research in all areas relating to early childhood professionals.

Please note there is a demand for advanced level workshops, and workshops for family childcare and elementary/school-age programs.

Presenter Guidelines
In alignment with CAEYC's mission and best practices in early childhood care and education, all presenters are encouraged to consider the guidelines below when submitting a workshop proposal:

- Use non-discriminatory words in verbal and written communications. Review your material and substitute asexual words such as sales representative or sales person instead of salesman. Refrain from using labels (e.g., referring to women as "girls"). Eliminate sexist language in your handouts (e.g., replace masculine pronouns with he or she, or reword sentences or phrases).
- Avoid discriminatory jokes (e.g., belittling a person's sex, race or age, or perpetuating a stereotype).
- Introduce panel members in a non-sexist manner. Avoid references to personal/physical attributes.
- Avoid visual aids that show people in stereotypical roles. Regardless of sex, race, age groups, etc., present individuals without bias.

Additional Information

Leadership Day
Leadership Day is the first day (Thursday) of our Conference and is designed to focus on leaders in ECE.
Leaders may have an interest in Public Policy, Accreditation, Membership, Fundraising, Leadership Development, Professional Development, etc. Considering the focus of Leadership Day, proposals should address topics, strategies, skills, etc., for ECE leaders as opposed to classroom practice. Leadership Day can also provide leaders an opportunity to share their contributions to ECE not only at the local affiliate level but to the state affiliate as well. Be sure to check the box if you would like your workshop to be considered for Leadership Day.

Presenter Registration
CAEYC is pleased that you have decided to submit a workshop proposal for consideration for our Annual Conference. Below is information that will help make your session and your experience in Ontario, CA as productive and rewarding as possible.

All presenters need to register for the conference and make their own travel and housing arrangements. All presenters (primary and up to two co-presenters) will receive a discount on conference registration. If your proposal is accepted, we will send discounted registration information at that time.

In the event you will not be partaking in any other CAEYC Conference events other than presenting your workshop, there will be no charge. This applies to all presenters. However, you must register as "presenter only" to ensure you have a badge.

If your workshop is selected, presenter registration (primary and co-presenters as appropriate) will be available online and due no later than January 17, 2017. Primary and co-presenter registration information submitted by this deadline will be included online in the Conference Planner, the printed program, and on CAEYC’s Conference mobile app. If presenter registration is received after this deadline, CAEYC is unable to guarantee including the information online in the Conference Planner, the printed program, or on CAEYC’s Conference mobile app.

Honorarium and Expenses
As a non-profit educational association, CAEYC does not pay an honorarium for workshop presentations. Presenters must also cover their own travel and printing expenses. CAEYC offers workshop handouts online and thus does not print workshop handouts for distribution.

Meeting Room Set-up
All workshop rooms will be set in theatre-style seating only (rows of seats with podium at the front). This room set is used to maximize the number of seats available in the program. There will be no alternative room set - no exceptions.

Audio-Visual Equipment
CAEYC provides the following for all workshop rooms:

- Head table with two chairs
- One wired microphone if the room holds more than 75 people
- LCD projector, screen, cart and cables to connect YOUR OWN laptop to the LCD projector.

CAEYC will also provide you with one additional audio visual tool/aid. You will have the opportunity to select one of the following when submitting your presentation:

- Flip chart with markers (please note this is for meeting rooms holding less than 75 people); or
- Additional wired microphone (for rooms holding more than 75 people)

Computers are NOT provided by CAEYC. Presenters may bring their own computers, overhead projectors or rent them through CAEYC’s AV provider. CAEYC reserves the right to not accommodate all AV requests.

Learning Level
In the proposal form, you will have the opportunity to designate the ideal participant's level of knowledge/skills most appropriate for your workshop. Please also remember that CAEYC is in need of advanced workshops.

- Introductory—Workshops will discuss concepts that are considered basic skills/knowledge
- Intermediate—Workshops that participants may more fully comprehend/appreciate if they have at least some work experience in the field
Advanced--Workshops will present concepts requiring a high-level of work experience or educational background in the particular area/topic to be discussed

Promotion of Materials/Non-Commercial Presentations
CAEYC workshops are learning experiences and are to remain free of commercial influence. Vested interest in workshop content does not prevent a proposal from being accepted, but the relationship must be disclosed to workshop participants. "Vested interest" includes curriculum, CDs, and/or books that are self-produced and sold for profit.

If selected, a presenter should state their connection at the beginning of the presentation. A financial supporter of the program may be referenced verbally one time and included in one slide at the end of the workshop. Marketing materials may be available in the room for participants to pick up at their discretion. Sales of products/materials are to be conducted in the exhibit hall and only within contracted booth space. For information on exhibiting, contact CAEYC at info@caeyc.org or (916) 486-7750.

Workshops Proposed as a Series
If your proposal is in conjunction with a series of proposed workshops, please state this intent in the "Additional Comments" section of the proposal form (e.g., "This is workshop one of two in the Music 123 series."). Please note if your workshop is only to be considered in conjunction with the series or if the workshop can be accepted independent of the other programs proposed in the series.

Commitment
If you are selected to present at CAEYC's Annual Conference & Expo, please view this engagement as you would any other professional commitment. Sharing your knowledge is a valuable contribution to the field and to the participants of your workshop. With the exception of emergency situations, personal or business, we request your full commitment.

Communication
Communications from CAEYC will be via email and directed to the primary presenters. Primary presenters will be responsible for communicating information from CAEYC to their additional presenters. A valid email address is required for all primary presenters - double check that you have typed your email address correctly.

Please consider the following guidelines when preparing and submitting your workshop proposal:

Developmentally Appropriate Practice

- Age appropriateness: reflective of physical, emotional, social, and cognitive development within the identified age span
- Individual appropriateness: recognize individual patterns and timing of growth as well as individual learning styles and family background. Both the curriculum and adult's interaction with children should be responsive to individual differences

Diversity/Equity Education

- Present multicultural activities that are integrated into the total curriculum; not added on for special occasions or holidays
- Include activities that meet the needs of children from various backgrounds and cultures
- Include information enabling teachers/caregivers to handle the bias and discomfort present when addressing diversity issues

Review and Acceptance Process
Each workshop proposal will be reviewed by at least three of your peers including CAEYC's Conference Committee. All reviewers are currently in the ECE field. Criteria for acceptance will include, but is not limited to the following:

- Workshop timeliness and relevancy of content
- Educational value of content
- Workshop objectives and do the learner outcomes meet the objectives
• Is the proposal thorough and professional
• Presenter qualifications
• If the presenter is commercially vested in the product did he/she provide a clear understanding of how they will present their workshop without giving the audience a sales pitch
• Equal representation of presentations among the topic tracks

All submitters will be notified of their presentation’s status by mid-October 2017.
