Irv Kaplan Annual Conference Award

The Irv Kaplan Annual Conference Award was created to recognize and honor CAAIEYC member Irv Kaplan. "This conference is so important! I don't understand why more people won't go," are the words Irv Kaplan would say each year after attending the informative and motivating CAAIEYC Annual Conference & Expo. He would return energized and would bring back "gems" to the ECE center where he taught young children and the many ECE students he taught at the community college level.

The CAAIEYC Irv Kaplan Annual Conference Award offers three (3) awards for CAAIEYC members to attend the CAAIEYC Annual Conference and Expo – Two days (Early Bird Registration & Cash Stipend: $450 value). The goal of sharing the Conference with more people, especially those who may be financially restricted, was Irv's vision. This Conference Award is funded by the generous donations from Francene Kaplan, PhD (Irv's sister) and many others.
