

CAEYC PRESIDENTS EDUCATION AWARD

Originally established by CAEYC to honor Docia Zavitkovsky, the Presidents Education Award is a $1,000 award offered to CAEYC members to encourage pursuit of advanced educational degrees and leadership in the profession.

Docia Zavitkovsky, an icon in early childhood education, served as NAEYC President from 1984–86 and was the Director of the Santa Monica Children's Centers. In 2003, she founded Play Matters, an organization dedicated to enhancing the role of play in the lives of young children.

It is the intent of the Presidents Educational Award to provide encouragement to those members who wish to pursue a graduate degree or credential and to provide fiscal support for books, tuition or general costs of advanced education.

ELIGIBILITY AND PROCESS

To be eligible, an applicant must be a current CAEYC member in good standing with a demonstrated financial need. Current enrollment in an accredited academic degree program in Early Childhood Education or Child Development is required. An applicant must also have a record of service or contribution to AEYC at the Local Affiliate or State Affiliate level.

Only COMPLETE applications with all supporting documents received by the application deadline will be considered. Applications and supporting materials will be reviewed and evaluated by the CAEYC Awards & Grants Committee and recommendations will be made to the CAEYC Board of Directors. All applicants will be notified of their acceptance or declination using contact information provided on the application.

Award recipients are encouraged to attend the CAEYC Annual Membership Meeting for the purpose of public recognition. Educational award recipients are required to submit a short, written article describing the use of funds for inclusion in both the Local Affiliate and State Affiliate newsletters or other communications.
