

ALAMEDA COUNTY FATHERS CORPS

The Alameda County Fathers Corps (ACFC) is a collaborative effort of First 5 Alameda County, Alameda County's Health Care Services Agency and Social Services Agency. The ACFC promotes and supports fathers and father-figures to be meaningfully engaged with their children and families, and advocates for family service providers to provide father friendly services and to assist fathers in strengthening their parenting skills.

In 2015, the ACFC engaged in two data gathering projects to learn more about how to support fathers and barriers to fathers' engagement with their children. The ACFC surveyed over 100 public and community based family service providers. The ACFC also conducted focus groups and one-on-one interviews with fathers who are not engaged in lives of their children. These efforts, along with lessons learned from the ACFC learning community, helped create the following policy and program recommendations:

“Through the work of the Fathers Corps, many lives are and will be changed in a very positive way.”

PROGRAMMATIC AND POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS TO ADDRESS BARRIERS TO FATHER ENGAGEMENT

- ▶ REQUIRE Father Friendly Principles be reflected in measurable contract outcomes for family service providers in Alameda County.
- ▶ TRAIN family service providers to engage fathers and increase the number of male staff.
- ▶ ENSURE family service programs that contract with the County include a fatherhood component.
- ▶ CREATE an Inter-Agency Fathers and Families Council to monitor policies and practices within the family court system, Social Services Agency, Health Care Services Agency and Probation.
